Seeing the duck, the little bird
flew down upon the grass, settled
next to her, and shrugged her shoulders.

"What kind of a bird are you if you can't fly?" said he. To this, the duck said, "What kind of a bird are you, if you can't swim?" And dived into the pond.

Just then, Peter's grandfather came out.
He was upset because Peter had gone alone to the meadow.
"It's a dangerous place. If a wolf should come out of the forest,
then what would you do?"

All at once, Peter felt drops of rain on his face, and ran back into the house. A great storm was brewing.

Whimpering, the wolf loped
off into the dark forest.

As the wolf swallowed, the hedgehog's
spikes caught in its throat!

Peter watched in horror as the wolf
snapped up the hedgehog in its mouth!
