Just then a duck came waddling'round
She was glad that Peter had not closed
the gate, and decided to take a nice swim in the deep pond in the meadow.

Seeing the duck, the little bird
flew down upon the grass, settled
next to her, and shrugged her shoulders.

"What kind of a bird are you if you can't fly?" said he. To this, the duck said, "What kind of a bird are you, if you can't swim?" And dived into the pond.

Suddenly, something caught Peter's
attention.
He noticed a cat
crawling through the grass.

The cat thought; "That little bird is busy arguing, I'll just grab him. Stealthily, the cat crept towards him on her velvet paws."

Just then, Peter's grandfather came out.
He was upset because Peter had gone alone to the meadow.
"It's a dangerous place. If a wolf should come out of the forest,
then what would you do?"

All at once, Peter felt drops of rain on his face, and ran back into the house. A great storm was brewing.

Whimpering, the wolf loped
off into the dark forest.

As the wolf swallowed, the hedgehog's
spikes caught in its throat!

Peter watched in horror as the wolf
snapped up the hedgehog in its mouth!
